Grade 7 Zones Track and Field Day

On Tuesday, 13 grade 7 students attended the Zones Track Meet that was hosted at Onoway Junior Senior High School. Each athlete did an amazing job. The sportsmanship and perseverance was inspiring. Mrs. Moser is so proud of each athlete! Congrats to everyone and a huge shout out to William who was top Junior male athlete at GCAA and Zones. Well done everyone!

Located in Whitecourt and designed for rural Alberta, this Hub acts as a central referral point for families wanting assistance in building on their strengths and developing strong family units.

The network provides a range of FREE services that focus on strengthening parent/caregiver knowledge, access to community supports and resources, improving child and youth development, and building resiliency and fostering well-being (for ages 0-18 years), with programs such as Whitecourt & Area Family Support Program, Family Capacity and Connection, and Home Visitation.

Whether you are new to the community or just unsure of what your community has to offer you and your family, we can help you get connected to the resources you need!

Our programs are offered in Whitecourt, Mayerthorpe, Swan Hills, Fox Creek, Valleyview, Lac St. Anne County, Onoway, and surrounding areas.
